

-15 $\frac{13}{21}$

Name: LOZ

History Chapters 10-12 Open Book Quiz

Chapter 10

1. What was the first European representative government of Englishmen in America called?

-1 ✓ The first European representative government of English men in America was called the House of Burgesses.

2. What event in 1619 showed that the English were in America to stay?

-1 ✓ The arrival of the house of Burgesses and the arrival of the enslaved Africans in the New World. women

3. From what countries in Europe besides England did Virginia colonists come? List 4.

-4 ✓ The North, Jamestown, America, and British America. Poland, Holland, Italy,

4. Which two examples tell how valuable tobacco had become?

-1 ✓ Tobacco had become so valuable Germany it had become a cash crop and you could get

5. What is a colony? a Wife for 120 pounds of tobacco,

- a. Land controlled by a distant or foreign nation
b. Land controlled by a religious ruler
c. Land with self-government
d. Land governed by the settlers and pay a fine with it

6. What did the charter of the Virginia Company promise the colonists?

- A. The same rights and freedom as the Native Americans.
B. The same rights and freedom as the people in England
C. More rights and freedom than the people in England
D. Fewer rights and less freedom than the people in England thinking you are better than others

Chapter 11

7. What does the word arrogance mean?

-1 ✓ Arrogance means making claims or pretensions to superior importance or rights.

✓ 8. List two ways colonists used up land?

✓ they cut down trees and filled the land with people
-2 One way colonists used up the land by using general courts. The second way is they would ✓ 9. According to Joy Hakim, what was the main reason Indians and colonists had no hope of living in peace? built for

The main reason is because the

-1 Europeans used up their land, they cut the forests and filled the land up with people. Conflict over land

✓ 10. The author states that arrogance was a problem. What examples (name 2) does she give to back up her statement?

-2 One example is arrogance would become racism. The second example is a disastrous problem.

Chapter 12

11. Why did Opechancanough attack the Virginia colony?

Opechancanough attacked the Virginia colony because he thought it was his last chance

12. What book did King James translate into English? to save his people.

The book Bible was translated into English.

13. What was the result of Opechancanough's Great Massacre of 1622?

- a. King James dissolved the Virginia Company and took over Virginia as a royal colony.
- b. The colonists and the Native Americans made peace with each other.
- c. King James refused to allow any more colonists to settle in Virginia.
- d. The colonists went back to England where food and jobs were plentiful.

14. Who spread the word about the 1622 massacre and saved the lives of some Jamestown colonists?

An Indian boy named Chanco spread the word.

15. The yellow box on page 48 says that to dispute means to argue. If you were to dispute something in your life, anything, what would it be? Write ~~several~~ ^{at least 3} sentences that tell why you feel this way.

I would dispute about having to not wear masks. I would argue with everyone in the store and tell them not to wear masks. I would take my mask off and argue that every one should be the same as I do.

16. What happened to the Virginia Company stockholders when King James made Virginia a royal colony?

The stockholders were wiped out and the stock was now worthless.

- 3 17. List three reasons English people continued to come to Virginia after the massacre of 1622.

✓ one reason is because King James took ✓ Virginia and made it become a royal colony.
✓

True or False

18. I King James was thoughtful and well-read but not a strong political leader.