

1 What is this chapter mainly about?

This chapter is mainly about the Indians and Englishmen at war. The Englishmen and Indians do stuff differently like surviving. Indians are very quiet and good. Englishmen are bad at surviving.

2 List two important facts from this chapter.

One important fact from this chapter is that William Tucker tricked the Indians to sign a fake peace treaty. He offered them wine that was poisoned and they died. Another important fact is the Englishmen and Indians had different ways of life.

3 What is one question you have after reading the chapter?

Why aren't the people who come to Virginia aren't interested in ideal societies?

4 Create a question and answer that you think all fifth graders should know after reading this chapter.

Who were the colonists?
Know by now that the Englishmen were made up of three different types of people. They were criminals, adventures, and people who were searching for gold.

5 What is an opinion you have about Chapter 8?

I think the English men were doing bad things because they poisoned the Indians. The Englishmen couldn't kill animals because of their smell and bad shooting. They couldn't chop down a tree because they had too much clothes on.
