

Lesson 53 Circle the letters that should be capitalized in each title. Underline or add quotation marks to each title.

1. Sarita wrote a summary of a story titled Legend of the Okefenokee Lizard.
2. Ami and Malvin went to the movie theater to see Norton the Alligator Goes to France.
3. Jonas lent his book the poems of Preston Pig to his young cousin Emile.
4. Emile's favorite poem is called Mud is Magnificent.
5. What is the best story in the book titled Trailside Adventures?
6. Beware of the Scorpion is my favorite story.
7. Neuri watched the movie Tornado Avengers with Alvin and Rami.
8. They loved the movie's theme song, The Avengers are Coming.
9. The librarian suggested Mari read the short story A Girl of the South before traveling to Louisiana.
10. A magazine has decided to publish my poem Frog Music.

Lesson 54 Underline the correct word in each pair. If the word is a possessive, write possessive. If the word is a contraction, write the two words it was made from.

1. (Let's/Lets') go to the dog show. _____
2. The (rottweiler's/rottweilers') bodies are massive. _____
3. That (pug's/pugs') face is cute. _____
4. All (pug's/pugs') noses are stubby. _____
5. That (chow's/chows') tongue is black! _____
6. Look, (he's/hes') wagging his tail. _____
7. That is the biggest dog (Ive/I've) ever seen! _____
8. (It's/Its') an Irish wolfhound. _____
9. (Their/They're) the tallest of all breeds. _____
10. I think that one is the four (judge's/judges') favorite. _____