

Name: L02

17/17

Thursday 3/11 History

Read chapter 29 and fill out the biographical chart on Benjamin Franklin.

Where was Franklin born?	Benjamin Franklin was born in Boston.
When was Franklin born?	Franklin was born in January 7, 1706.
What religion were his ancestors?	His ancestors religion was Puritan.
What was his father's profession?	His father's profession was Quaker.
Who did he apprentice with and what trade did he learn?	12-year old Ben was apprenticed to his brother James to learn the printer's trade.
Under what name was Franklin's writing first published?	Silence Dogood was the name that he used for his first published work.
How did Franklin improve his writing?	First, he wrote letters to a friend and then he worked out to improve his writing style.
As an adult did Franklin eat meat? What did he do with the extra money?	He was a vegetarian and he bought books with the money he saved by not eating meat.

Name: LOZ

Read chapter 29 and fill out the biographical chart on Benjamin Franklin.

Franklin became the most famous citizen of what city?	He became the most famous citizen in Philadelphia.
What did he open there?	He opened a print shop in Philadelphia.
Why was his almanac popular?	It is because he has a mind full of interesting information and he put that in the almanac.
Why did Franklin retire?	He retired because he wanted to spend the rest of his life doing things he wanted to do.
List at least three things Franklin invented	Some of Benjamin Franklin's inventions are the lightning rod, Bifocals and the Franklin stove.

