Ch 30 Maryland's Form of Toleration

Name Loz

1. What kind of government did Maryland have? Representative government

2. Who had to "keep quiet or leave Maryland" because the Toleration Act didn't involve them?

Jews, atheists, and Christians

Who asked to many questions.

3. Why did many apprentices and servants run away in colonial Maryland? they ran away because some of them had a miserable life. It is because their employers was stingy, or cruel, or just indifferent,

4. What religion did Sir George Calvert practice? Roman catholic

5. Who was the first governor of Maryland? Leonard Calvert

6. Which group, not welcome in Massachusetts or Virginia, was welcome in Maryland?

* Hint - Look at your chapter 17 notes. Quakers and Catholics

7. In the 1600's, the government of most American colonies tried to force people to accept a certain religion. In the U.S. today we have the right to practice any religion. What would you do if the government outlawed your religious beliefs? Record your thoughts using 3 - 4 complete sentences. Use the back of the paper if needed.

If my government tried to ban my religion I would be really upset. I would be upset because we like listen to Sikh mantras and practice yoga. Also, the government should have the power to take away all religion.
