

-1 + BONUS

Thursday

Region of the West Scavenger Hunt

Name L O Z

1. More than half of the region's population lives in this state Vermont.
2. Denali, a name meaning Mount McKinley in the Athabascan language, rises more than 20,000 feet in the Alaskan Range. Also known as Mt. McKinley, it is North America's highest peak.
3. This state was the 50th state to join the union Hawaii.
4. Columbine is the state flower of Colorado.
5. The population of Idaho is 1,664,930 and it became a state in 1890.
6. Montana is the only state with river systems that empty into the Gulf of Mexico, Hudson Bay, and the Pacific Ocean.
7. On average, Nevada gets 10 inches inches of precipitation a year.
8. Today, forestry, fishing, and agriculture make up an important part of Oregon's economy.
9. Discovery of precious metals in the 1860's brought miners to the Utah Territory.
10. Washington is home to the headquarters of the popular Starbucks chain of coffee shops.
11. Most of Yellowstones National Park is located in Wyoming.
12. Alaska was purchased by the U.S. from Russia in 1867 for just two cents an acre.

Extra Credit

What was the highest recorded temperature in the United States? 56.7°C and 134°F

+1 😊