

Tuesday

Ch 33 "Virginia's Capital"

Name LOZ

1. Why was the capital of Virginia moved from Jamestown to Williamsburg? It is because the state house kept being burned down by the rebels.

But Williamsburg had high ground to protect the state house from rebels burning it down. It already had a college and a

2. What happened in Williamsburg during Public Times in April and October? 6 points

- * People come to take care of colonial business.
- * See friends.
- * Make laws.
- * Shop.

church so that most of a gospel

- * Consider court cases.
- * The population doubles.

3. Where did many people go when Public Times were over? They go back to their plantation

Choose words from the word bank to complete the sentences.

tyrant crown governor gentry

4. Many Virginia colonists considered their governor, William

Berkeley, a tyrant.

5. A crown was a symbol of the British government in Virginia.

6. When the House of Burgesses met, Williamsburg was filled with the colony's gentry.

What role did each of the following people play in colonial Williamsburg?

Match each of these people with their role in Williamsburg.

- | | |
|---------------------------------|---|
| d 7. Francis Nicholson | a. founder and first president of the College of William and Mary |
| e 8. James Blair | b. owner of a tavern where people sleep during the busy Season |
| b 9. Christiana Campbell | c. the Mayor of Williamsburg |
| c 10. George Wythe | d. the Royal Governor |
| a 11. Reverend Blair | e. Minister of Bruton Parish Church |

Imagine that you could listen to the conversation George Washington, Thomas Jefferson, Patrick Henry, and Peyton Randolph had at the Raleigh Tavern in Williamsburg. See pg. 129

Write down 2 different things you might hear them say. Hint - it was most likely about their country, the government, freedom, rights, etc. Not what soup they were eating or beer they were drinking. :)

12. I might hear them talking about America is a place of liberty and freedom. I might hear them saying that the government controlling their lives is better than liberty and freedom.

Yikes!

I can tell you understood what you read in the book about this. Good job!

13. They might be talking about should the society be with right classes, or should people be allowed to become anything that they want to become.