Ch 34 Pretend Some More 15 points

Name Loz

Children lead different types of lives during Colonial Times.

Under each heading, list information that tells what life was like for each.

You can tell where they lived or who they lived with, what their workload was like, the education they received, etc. List at least 3 pieces of information for each category.

Indentured Servant Children

1. You have to light a fire to warm the house and another to heat the forge where silver is melted and formed.
2. Then you clean the kitchen, run errands, and sometimes do odd jobs in the silver shop.
3. You don't get to play. You have been taught to read. Your owner takes you to church and whips you when you are late.

Children of Poor Farmers

4. You live in a small wooden house with a big fireplace at one end. The house has only one big room with a sleeping loft.
5. You sleep on a straw mattress. The only clothes you have are those you wear, and a Sunday shirt.
6. You have enough food, but you don't eat a balanced diet. You have had one year of schooling and you know how to read. You will marry, have 10 children, and own land enough for for all of them to farm.

Slave Children

7. Slaves live in small huts and sleep on old blankets piled on the dirt floor.
8. Other slaves, especially those who are house servants, live in small wooden houses with beds and tables and furnishings that come from the plantation workshop or, sometimes, from the big house.
9. They don't eat well and they work almost all the time.
