

Lesson 1 Underline the complete subject in each sentence once. Underline the complete predicate twice.

1. Hot sand covered Zoe's feet.
2. She rested beside a pile of driftwood.
3. This hidden beach was her favorite place.
4. Zoe fell asleep.
5. A noisy sea gull landed at her feet.
6. Someone's radio blasted loud music.
7. Some teenagers set up a volleyball net.
8. A crowd gathered.
9. Everyone cheered the players.
10. A quiet place is hard to find.

Lesson 2 In each sentence, draw one line under the simple subject and two lines under the simple predicate.

1. My alarm rang at 6:30 this morning.
2. I looked out the window.
3. Heavy black clouds threatened rain.
4. I dressed in warm clothes.
5. My father prepared a hot breakfast for everyone.
6. My mother packed an umbrella in my backpack.
7. A crowd waited impatiently for the bus.
8. The first raindrops were huge.
9. My umbrella snapped in the wind.
10. Randy shared his umbrella with me.

Redo