revolution languages la reconquista united New Mexico

7 Pope was a religious leader who united Indians to drive out Spanish colonists in New Mexico in 1680.

8 Pope's task was difficult because the Indians were not used to acting in a united way and they spoke different languages.

9 Pope tricked the Spanish by having false plans of the revolution fall into the Spanish hands.

10 La reconquista was the return of the Spaniards to New Mexico in 1692. It succeeded because Pope had died and the Pueblos were no longer united.

11 The arrival of the Spaniards changed the Indians' lives in many ways. List two of these ways.

the Spaniards changed the Indians' lives by forcing them to grow crops for them, to pay them taxes, clean their homes, and do their own work.
