

I Survived Hurricane
Katrina, 2005

Lauren Tarshis

I liked how in I survived Hurricane Katrina, 2005

they were trying to leave New Orleans but her sister gets sick so they have to stay home.

I also liked how Barry was trying to get to the broken house and the dog was still in there.

This book was amazing and I want to read more just like this one.
