

-1 + Bonus

14
14

Fri. History

South West Atlas Scavenger Hunt

Name Loz

1. According to page 24, every state in the U.S. has experienced a tornado. However, there is one state that has had more than any other state. This state is texas.
2. Native to South America, large populations of this armor-plated mammal are found as far north as Oklahoma. The armadillo is also known as "a hillbilly speed bump".
3. Phoenix, the capital of Arizona, has a population of 1,563,025.
4. The Spanish founded Santa Fe in 1610, a decade before the Mayflower reached America, in this state New Mexico.
5. What state is home to pine forests, swamps, barrier islands, grassy plains, rolling hills, mountains, valleys, and sandy plains. texas
6. What state is due north of Oklahoma? Kansas
7. What bird that was once common throughout the Southwest and nearly became extinct in 1987, now lives in the Grand Canyon? The peregrine falcon
8. What natural resource made Dallas, Texas grow and prosper into a modern metropolis? Huge oil, natural gas fields and it is a manufacturing
9. The Colorado River runs through Grand Canyon National Park?
10. The state bird of New Mexico is the Roadrunner gila monster
11. With more than 80,000 farms, the business of agriculture is important in Oklahoma.
12. The most poisonous lizard native to the United States is the strikingly patterned gila monster which lives in desert areas of the Southwest.
13. People have been carving pictures called Petroglyphs into rock cliffs in Verde Valley near Flagstaff, Arizona for thousands of years.
14. Arizona's economy was long based on the Five C's: copper, cattle, cotton, citrus and Climate.

Extra Credit

The only spot in the United States where the borders of four states come together is known as

The Four Corners region

+