

Thursday

Ch 36 North Carolina: Dissenters and Pirates

Name LOZ

Write a sentence about why each person is an important figure in North Carolina history.

1. Blackbeard was the most famous pirate and he battled Robert Maynard but died.
2. John Culpeper a governor who was for two years and tried culpeper for treason. He was convicted but not punished.
3. Robert Maynard fought in a ferious battle between him and Blackbeard. He killed him and cut his head off and stuck it on his conspirator.

Choose words from the word bank to complete the sentences.

treason

~~religious dissenters~~

~~Navigation Acts~~

pirate

4. Many people in North Carolina opposed England's Navigation Acts, which made them pay taxes on goods they sold to other countries.
5. Edward Teach is the real name of the most famous pirate in American history.
6. British authorities put John Culpeper on trial for treason.
7. Religious dissenters had different opinions than the aristocracy of Virginia.

8. What do you think is the "future event" Joy Hakim refers to in the last paragraph on page 138? I think the future event is the American Revolution.

9. Some people moved to North Carolina so they could practice their own religions. Three of these were the Baptists, the Methodists, and the Lutherans.